Verse 1

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
 you drove out the nations and
 planted it.
 It stretched out its branches to the sea;
 to the River it stretched out its shoots.

Verse 2

Then why have you broken down
 its walls?
 It is plucked by all who pass by the way.
 It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
 devoured by the beasts of the field.

Verse 3

God of hosts, turn again, we implore;
 look down from heaven and see.
 Visit this vine and protect it,
 the stock your right hand has planted,
 the son you have claimed for yourself.

Verse 4

And we shall never forsake you again;
 give us life that we may call upon
 your name.
 Bring us back, O LORD God of
 hosts;
 let your face shine forth, and we shall be saved.
